NOTE FOR SUPPLEMENTARIES.

South Kanara Forest Grievances Enquiry Committee constituted by the Govt. in 1950 made various recommendations for the development of Malnad in South Kanara Dt. They were all considered by Govt. and suitable action taken. This question relates purely to cultivable lands unassigned for cultivation in Malnad, South Kanara. Notice has been given by the same M.L.A. for another question requiring information about the schemes sanctioned or under consideration for the development of Malnad area in South Kanara Dt. in general. Particulars are being collected for answering that question.

Recently Govt. have issued general orders that lands in compact blocks may be assigned to the landless and poor persons who are likely to engage themselves in direct cultivation and also to cooperative societies consisting entirely of such persons.

under the scheme of Intensive Cultivation through Village Cooperatives which has been introduced in the S.K.Dt., lands at the disposal of the Govt. are being granted on lease to rural multi-purpose Co-operative Societies, for cultivation. Certain proposals for the grant of financial assistance to the Co-operatives for reclamation and cultivation of these Govt. lands are under the consideration of the Govt.
